

Air Traffic Control

Across

2. an aeronautical map used by pilots
5. unit of speed used in aviation
8. unit of length used in aviation
10. instrument that uses radio waves for locating airplanes on a screen or scope

Down

1. abbreviation used for the system designed to control air traffic at airports and enroute
3. aviation term to describe an area used to delay aircrafts in flight
4. direct the air traffic control system
6. an airplane under its own control
7. abbreviation used for the agency responsible for the safety regulations used to maintain the use of the United State's airspace
9. tall structural facility used for visual observations in directing air traffic at the airport